

VANDANA INTERNATIONAL Sr. Sec. SCHOOL
CYCLE TEST: I SCIENCE
CLASS - VI

Time allowed: 1 hours

Maximum Marks: 30

Q1. Write one word for the following :- (0.5*6=3)

1. The organism who depends on others for food.
2. The rearing of honeybees on large scale.
3. The animal product that serves as source of food for humans.
4. The shiny appearance of material.
5. The property by which heat is conducted through a substance.
6. The liquid which mix with each other.

Q2 Name them :- (0.5*6=3)

1. The animal that eat only dead animals.
2. The animal who eat meat an plants both.
3. The organism who return nutrients back to environment.
4. Anything that occupies space and has mass.
5. Placing similar things together.
6. The material that float on water.

Q3. Define the following terms (any four) :- (0.5*6=3)

1. Ingredients
2. Plsclculcure
3. Materials
4. Balanced diet
5. Solvent

Q4. Correct the following statements (0.5*6=3)

1. Iron nail floats on water.
 2. Copper is a bad conductor of electricity.
-

-
3. Oil is called a universal solvent.
 4. Tiger and lion eats only plants.
 5. Sugar is obtained from animals.
 6. Potato tuber is the part of root.
- Q5. Give reasons (any two) :- (2*2=4)
1. Why green plants are considered as producers?
 2. Why Bakelite is used to make handles of cooker?
 3. Why window panes of bathroom are made of translucent glass?
- Q6. Give difference between them (any two) :- (2*2=4)
1. Herbivore – Carnivore
 2. Soluble substances – insoluble substances
 3. Good Conductor – Bad conductor
- Q7. Answer the following question (any three) :- (3*3=9)
1. Draw a diagram of plant and label it's parts.
 2. What are the 2 main sources of food? Write any two plant parts which is used as food & it's example.
 3. Give two examples each of made of cotton, plastic & leather.
 4. What is classification? Write any two advantages of classification.
 - 5.